MOSES-TAYLOR LITIGATION.

An Attempt to Try the Conspiracy Case-A Defendant Absent. The case of C. C. Cole, attorney-at-law; Wm. D. Moses, merchant, and James A. McDevitt, detective, charged with conspiracy age insecting Taylor, set specially for trial in the riminal cout yesterday, came on in accordcriminal contyestering, came on in accordance with the assignment.

Messra Cole and Messa, with their attorneys, Messra Wilson and Cook, were present, also District Attorney Worthington and his assistant, Mr. Coyle, but Mr. McDevitt failed to appear to the control of the cont ant, Mr. Coyle, but Mr. McDavitt tailed to appear.

District Attorney Worthington called the attention of the court to his attence, and thought it a remarkable circumstance. The case had been specially set down for that days no one knew better the requirements of the court than Mr. McDavitt, and it was a remarkable course he had taken.

Col. Cook stated that he appeared for all of the defendants. He had been informed by McDavitt partner, Mr. Flinders, that Mr. McDavitt left here on important private business last Friday, with the expectation of being back here jesterday. Since, he had learned from the same source that he would not be able to reach here before the day set for trial, if then.

Mr. Wilson said that he appeared only for nated.

Justice MacArthur wished to know if this was an indictment under a statute, and was informed that it was not.

District Autorney Worthington declined to proceed without the presence of Mr. McDevitt, and thought he should ask for a bench warrant for him and the forfeiture of his recognizance.

rant for him and the forfeiture of his recognizance.

2 Justice MacArthur thought it looked very much like triling with the court. All other business had been set aside to try this case. Mr. McDevitt knew it, and with that knowledge left his city deliberately and intentionally. He thought that there should be a distinguished example made, and should forfeit the recognizance and direct a bench warrant to issue if the prosecutor should ask far it.

Mr. Wilson had no doubt Mr. McDevitt would be present ouring the day.

His honor said that might be so, but such triffing with the court was not to be passed by with indifference.

District Attorney Worthington asked for the forteiture of the recognizance and issuing of a bench warrant, and both applications were granted.

The court then adjourned until this morn-

He didn't "all the same," for he found the dreafful feeling was caused by a cold, which was specifity cured by the immediate use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which is known far and wide as a great remedy for coughs and colds.

The New Arctic Expedition.
It has been decided by the Secretary of the Treasury to send a relief expedition to search Treasury to send a relief expedition to search for the crew of the whaling bork Amethyst, which is supposed to have been lost in Babring sea. The relief vessel will be either the Corwin or the Rust, both belonging to the revenue marine service, and both being at present at San Francisco. The Corwin is a famous Arctic cruiser, and the Rust is a new vessel, but is commanded by Capt. Hooper, the former captain of the Corwin, which is now commanded by Capt. Healy. These two officers have been directed by telegraph to consult as to the best vessel to send on the expedition, and to select a crew. It is expected that the vessel will be ready to start in four days after a selection is made. The vessel will proceed direct to Gunalaska, one of the Alculan islands, where there is a custom house and plenty of supplies and coal. From there it will go to Seal island, in Behring sea, nearly 20 miles further north. It is thought to he impossible to proceed further than this point, but it is hoped that some tidings of the ship-wrecked men will be received there.

Another Congressional Junket. The number of guests will be 280. They will leave this afternoon in a special car, and will arrive in Boston Wednesday. Mr. Weston Lewis, the president of the association, arrived here yesterday to complete the arrangements. They will be taken to Lawrence on Thursday to impect the Pacific mill, the largest manufactory in New England, and will be given a reception at the opera house. They will return on Friday.

The Force of Public Opinion. The Force of Public Opinion.

A recent medical discovery was at first thought to be a patent medicine scheme, but when it was found that it was purely vegetable and contained no medical poison or opiates, and yet that it promotly cared the most obstinate eases of cough or lung trouble, Boards of Health and public men indorsed it and bespinials adopted it successfully in their treatment of wasting discases. The discovery is Red Star Cough Cure, and it is sold for twenty-five cents a bottle.

ling into an open sewer near Twenty-litth and K streets. The amount of damages claumed is $10,000. Mr. Hewlett appears for the plaintiff, the broken condition of the sewer. Further, that the plaintiff has notice of the condition of
